1. Tally

BCom & BCom (Accounting and Finance):

Relevance: Integral for accounting professionals to manage bookkeeping, GST, and financial statements.

Outcome: Enhances students' proficiency in financial management, increasing employability in roles like accountant, auditor, and tax consultant.

BMS:

Relevance: Useful for managerial roles involving financial decision making and analysis.

Outcome: Provides knowledge in managing organizational finances, beneficial for management roles with a finance focus.

2. Spoken English

BCom, BCom (Accounting and Finance), & BMS:

Relevance: Communication is critical across all business functions. Spoken English proficiency boosts students' confidence in both professional and academic environments.

Outcome: Develops communication skills required for client interactions, interviews, presentations, and team collaborations.

3. Financial Market

BCom (Accounting and Finance):

Relevance: Aids in understanding stock markets, investment strategies, and financial instruments, essential for careers in banking and investment.

Outcome: Prepares students for roles in stock trading, investment banking, and financial advisory

BMS:

Relevance: Important for understanding market dynamics in managerial decision-making.

Outcome: Helps in business strategy roles, especially in sectors like finance, marketing, and consultancy.

4. Salesmanship

BCom:

Relevance: Sales skills are vital for entrepreneurship and customer relations in retail or service sectors.

Outcome: Equips students with the skills to succeed in customer facing roles and business development.

BMS:

Relevance: Important for marketing and business management.

Outcome: Trains students in persuasive communication, client interaction, and business growth strategies.

5. MS Office

BCom, BCom (Accounting and Finance), & BMS:

Relevance: Proficiency in MS Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint) is crucial for daily operations, report preparation, and data analysis in all business environments.

Outcome: Enhances productivity and organizational skills, essential for entry-level positions and further career growth.
